

Part 2

- 9 Selected advancement or achievement:
- 10 Individually conduct research on your selected advancement or achievement. Research should include the following information:
  - a. Date of advancement or achievement milestone
  - b. Credited origination
  - c. Credited individuals
  - d. Detailed description of advancement or achievement
  - e. Video or image of advancement or achievement
  - f. Media coverage of advancement or achievement
  - g. Description of world events at the time of advancement or achievement
  - h. Description of major advancements relation to science, technology, and engineering that made the advancement or achievement possible.
  - i. Description of how the advancement or achievement affected future aerospace advancement or achievement.
- 11 Combine research findings into a 5 minute video or Microsoft PowerPoint documentary illustrating the importance of the advancement or achievement. The documentary should contain all research findings.
- 12 As a classroom research group, create a video or Microsoft PowerPoint documentary by combining all individual achievement and advancement documentaries into a single format that allows for continues chronological viewing as well as selection of individual achievement and advancement viewing.
- 13 As a class view the aerospace evolution documentary in chronological order.